Camper Letter to Counselor and Behavior Agreement

Each camper is asked to write a note to his or her counselor and read the Behavior Contract before camp begins. This way, the campers are prepared for the expectations of camp and counselors can help the campers feel welcome and know more about each child in his/her cabin group. Parents: please send this in with (optional) store money to: 17530 Lake Vera Road // Nevada City, CA 95959

Behavior Agreement Question:

What unusual words did you find when you read the Camper Behavior Contract?

(Hint: Its eyes shoot lasers and its shell is convex!)

Letter to my counselor:

Campers, please complete this letter with some specific things you would like to do at camp this year, and include any special interests and/or camping experiences you hope to gain this summer. Other points to consider writing about are: nicknames, favorites, un-favorites, worries, joys, pets, jokes, and memories of camp if you've been before. Closer to the summer, you can read these things and many more about your counselor in their Camp Augusta bio on our website. We look forward to reading a bit about you as well! 😊
