

Weather Report Wake Up

Summary: Looks like we're in for some rain, snow, fog, and a hurricane!

Number of staff required: 1

Props/Materials/Costumes:

- 2 Radios
- Fog Machine
- Hose or squirt gun
- Shaving Cream
- Small leaf blower
- Large leaf blower

Prep done:

- Collect props
- Make sure leaf blowers work
- Warm up fog machine (this takes about 20mins)
Hide radio in cabin

Execution:

- Fill the cabin with fog
- Use the radio to announce the 'Camp Augusta Weather Report'
- Begin announcing that there will be rain, while someone sprays the cabin with a hose in the gaps
- Announce that there will now be snow, while someone uses the small leaf blower and shaving cream to spray shaving cream into the cabin through the gaps
- Add some hype up, be dramatic and announce a hurricane is coming, while someone straps themselves to the large leafblower and runs into the cabin blowing everything around (you can also grab the fog machine and put more fog into the cabin at this time)
- Announce that the weather conditions are returning back to normal and it should be sunny for the rest of the day
