

Camp Augusta: Village Leader

Village Leaders are passionately devoted to being the support system for counselors. Each village (4-5 cabins) has its own Village Leader, and you are dedicated to overseeing and supporting the experience of each camper & counselor in your Village. You masterfully organize cabin activities, village activities, and ensure the needs of both campers and staff are met. During two-week sessions, you work with the Program Directors and the Masters of Fun and Games to cultivate magical worlds within the weekend programming. You are committed to upholding Augusta's leadership standards, by supporting and challenging counselors to grow, while acting as beacons of empathy and care within the camp community. You possess excellent communication, grammar and organizational skills, and exceptional emotional intelligence. If it's clear that we're talking about you here, please get in touch and find out what life changing fun, challenge, and growth awaits you this summer!

Village Leader Skills

- Exceptional emotional intelligence, along with eagerness to support EQ growth in campers and village counselors alike
- Demonstrates a high level of written and verbal communication skills, exceptional organizational skills, and discretion in handling emotionally sensitive concerns
- Ability to build community and camaraderie defined by love, mutual respect, dedication to growth, and playful interactions
- Resourceful and proactive in supporting counselors' plans with their cabins; checking in with village counselors consistently and meaningfully; setting an example of excellence for all counselors
- Commitment to learning, embodying, and upholding all Camp Augusta leadership benchmarks through pre-camp work, staff training engagement, and ongoing attention throughout the summer
- Enthusiasm for planning and executing village programming throughout the summer
