Camper Letter to Their Counselor - Camp Augusta

Each camper is asked to write a note to his or her counselor before camp begins. In this way, the counselors can help the campers feel welcome and know more about each child in his or her cabin group.

Campers, please complete this letter with some specific things you would like to do at camp, and include any special interests and/or camping experiences you hope to gain. Other points to consider writing about are nicknames, favorites, un-favorites, worries, joys, pets, jokes, and memories of camp if you've been before. We look forward to reading a bit about you as well! 📧
